

and State lands in the West Desert of Utah. Such legislation is necessary because the proposed exchange does not comply with the requirements of the Federal Land Policy Management Act and other applicable law.

The agreement between the Secretary and the Governor has only recently been finalized, and the hearing held by the Committee on Resources raised several questions. Fortunately, I think we have been able to address the questions that were raised with respect to appraisal of these lands and the process by which the BLM went through this and raised concerns about the general, if you will, BLM appraisal process with respect to land exchanges.

Clearly here the worry was that valuation methods were used that had no basis in law or policy and could not stand up to the appraisal standards. But I think the fact of the matter is that while that process was far from ideal, I think also we have a unique situation here in the sense that there is a benefit in this exchange, especially in the fact that we will have the opportunity to consolidate Federal land holdings in many wilderness study areas and other lands found to have significant wilderness qualities, and I think that is important.

So some of these lands in and of them themselves may not have great value, but in terms of management and the consolidation impact, I think that clearly this exchange is needed, and I believe the bill now contains provisions that will provide reasonable process for assessing the value of the proposed land exchange before it is implemented.

The language provides that the Secretary and the State of Utah will each prepare a statement of value for the lands to be exchanged. In addition, the two parties will select an independent qualified appraiser who will review those statements of values and all relevant documentation to determine if the lands are of approximately equal value. I think this in fact will make the bill acceptable.

I really want to thank the sponsor of this legislation, the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN), for all of the effort that he has put into this legislation to address these concerns. I think it is clearly a bill that the House should now support.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance much my time.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from California for his comments.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill, H.R. 4579, as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

VALLES CALDERA PRESERVATION ACT

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I move to suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill (S. 1892) to authorize the acquisition of the Valles Caldera, to provide for an effective land and wildlife management program for this resource within the Department of Agriculture, and for other purposes.

The Clerk read as follows:

S. 1892

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

TITLE I—VALLES CALDERA NATIONAL PRESERVE AND TRUST

SEC. 101. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the “Valles Caldera Preservation Act”.

SEC. 102. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

(a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds that—

(1) the Baca ranch comprises most of the Valles Caldera in central New Mexico, and constitutes a unique land mass, with significant scientific, cultural, historic, recreational, ecological, wildlife, fisheries, and productive values;

(2) the Valles Caldera is a large resurgent lava dome with potential geothermal activity;

(3) the land comprising the Baca ranch was originally granted to the heirs of Don Luis Maria Cabeza de Vaca in 1860;

(4) historical evidence, in the form of old logging camps and other artifacts, and the history of territorial New Mexico indicate the importance of this land over many generations for domesticated livestock production and timber supply;

(5) the careful husbandry of the Baca ranch by the current owners, including selective timbering, limited grazing and hunting, and the use of prescribed fire, have preserved a mix of healthy range and timber land with significant species diversity, thereby serving as a model for sustainable land development and use;

(6) the Baca ranch's natural beauty and abundant resources, and its proximity to large municipal populations, could provide numerous recreational opportunities for hiking, fishing, camping, cross-country skiing, and hunting;

(7) the Forest Service documented the scenic and natural values of the Baca ranch in its 1993 study entitled “Report on the Study of the Baca Location No. 1, Santa Fe National Forest, New Mexico”, as directed by Public Law 101-556;

(8) the Baca ranch can be protected for current and future generations by continued operation as a working ranch under a unique management regime which would protect the land and resource values of the property and surrounding ecosystem while allowing and providing for the ranch to eventually become financially self-sustaining;

(9) the current owners have indicated that they wish to sell the Baca ranch, creating an opportunity for Federal acquisition and public access and enjoyment of these lands;

(10) certain features on the Baca ranch have historical and religious significance to Native Americans which can be preserved and protected through Federal acquisition of the property;

(11) the unique nature of the Valles Caldera and the potential uses of its resources with different resulting impacts warrants a management regime uniquely capable of developing an operational program for appropriate preservation and development of the land and resources of the Baca ranch in the interest of the public;

(12) an experimental management regime should be provided by the establishment of a Trust capable of using new methods of public land management that may prove to be cost-effective and environmentally sensitive; and

(13) the Secretary may promote more efficient management of the Valles Caldera and the watershed of the Santa Clara Creek through the assignment of purchase rights of such watershed to the Pueblo of Santa Clara.

(b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this title are—

(1) to authorize Federal acquisition of the Baca ranch;

(2) to protect and preserve for future generations the scientific, scenic, historic, and natural values of the Baca ranch, including rivers and ecosystems and archaeological, geological, and cultural resources;

(3) to provide opportunities for public recreation;

(4) to establish a demonstration area for an experimental management regime adapted to this unique property which incorporates elements of public and private administration in order to promote long term financial sustainability consistent with the other purposes enumerated in this subsection; and

(5) to provide for sustained yield management of Baca ranch for timber production and domesticated livestock grazing insofar as is consistent with the other purposes stated herein.

TITLE II—FEDERAL LAND TRANSACTION FACILITATION

SEC. 201. SHORT TITLE.

This title may be cited as the "Federal Land Transaction Facilitation Act".

SEC. 202. FINDINGS.

Congress finds that—

(1) the Bureau of Land Management has authority under the Federal Land Policy and Management Act of 1976 (43 U.S.C. 1701 et seq.) to sell land identified for disposal under its land use planning;

(2) the Bureau of Land Management has authority under that Act to exchange Federal land for non-Federal land if the exchange would be in the public interest;

(3) through land use planning under that Act, the Bureau of Land Management has identified certain tracts of public land for disposal;

(4) the Federal land management agencies of the Departments of the Interior and Agriculture have authority under existing law to acquire land consistent with the mission of each agency;

(5) the sale or exchange of land identified for disposal and the acquisition of certain non-Federal land from willing landowners would—

(A) allow for the reconfiguration of land ownership patterns to better facilitate resource management;

(B) contribute to administrative efficiency within Federal land management units; and

(C) allow for increased effectiveness of the allocation of fiscal and human resources within the Federal land management agencies;

(6) a more expeditious process for disposal and acquisition of land, established to facilitate a more effective configuration of land ownership patterns, would benefit the public interest;

(7) many private individuals own land within the boundaries of Federal land management units and desire to sell the land to the Federal Government;

(8) such land lies within national parks, national monuments, national wildlife refuges, national forests, and other areas designated for special management;

(9) Federal land management agencies are facing increased workloads from rapidly growing public demand for the use of public land, making it difficult for Federal managers to address problems created by the existence of inholdings in many areas;

(10) in many cases, inholders and the Federal Government would mutually benefit from Federal acquisition of the land on a priority basis;

(11) proceeds generated from the disposal of public land may be properly dedicated to the acquisition of inholdings and other land that will improve the resource management ability of the Federal land management agencies and adjoining landowners;

(12) using proceeds generated from the disposal of public land to purchase inholdings and other such land from willing sellers would enhance the ability of the Federal land management agencies to—

(A) work cooperatively with private landowners and State and local governments; and

(B) promote consolidation of the ownership of public and private land in a manner that would allow for better overall resource management;

(13) in certain locations, the sale of public land that has been identified for disposal is the best way for the public to receive fair market value for the land; and

(14) to allow for the least disruption of existing land and resource management programs, the Bureau of Land Management may use non-Federal entities to prepare appraisal documents for agency review and approval consistent with applicable provisions of the Uniform Standards for Federal Land Acquisition.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to the rule, the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN) and the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN).

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, S. 1892, sponsored by Senator DOMENICI, authorizes the acquisition of the Valles Caldera or better known as the Baca Ranch. The full committee held a hearing on the House version of the bill, H.R. 3288, sponsored by the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) and the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) on May 1 of this year.

The gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) deserves the credit for getting this bill to the floor today. I would like to publicly thank her for her tireless efforts in working on this bill. I do not know anyone that has ever worked harder on a bill than the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) has on this one.

The Baca Ranch is approximately 95,000 acres of land located within the Santa Fe National Forest of New Mexico. This land emanates from a Spanish land grant in 1821, and this actual property was deeded by Congress in 1860 and has been used primarily as a ranch for more than 100 years.

S. 1892 mandates the acquisition of the Baca Ranch with funds that were appropriated last year. S. 1892 sets up a unique opportunity for the Federal Government to acquire this ranch, but does it through a trust agreement that will allow these lands to continue to be managed as they have been for decades.

The bill establishes the Valles Caldera National Preserve, which will be managed by a trust established within the legislation. The Preserve is designed to operate as a government corporation and is expected to be self-sustaining within 15 years. This type of trust arrangement was first implemented at the Presidio in San Francisco. The Baca Ranch is yet another great opportunity to take a piece of unique land and manage it in a way that maintains its historic uses and stresses self-sufficiency.

Title II of the bill authorizes the BLM to sell parcels of Federal land that are identified for disposal with the proceeds staying within the agency to acquire in holdings within Federal designated areas among all of the land management agencies. This provision will streamline Federal land sales and exchanges. This will be an important management tool for our Federal land managers to dispose of unneeded lands and acquire in holdings.

Once again, I would like to thank my colleagues for getting this bill to the floor of the House today. I urge my colleagues to support this important legislation that has the approval of the New Mexico delegation and of the President of the United States.

Mr. Speaker, I submit the following communication for the RECORD.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
COMMITTEE ON COMMERCE,
Washington, DC, July 11, 2000.

Hon. DON YOUNG,
Chairman, Committee on Resources, Washington, DC.

DEAR DON: I am writing with regard to S. 1892, the Valles Caldera Preservation Act. As you know, Rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives grants the Committee on Commerce jurisdiction over the generation and marketing of power. As you are aware, section 109(a)(3) of the bill clarifies that the Secretary of Agriculture may continue to exercise his authority to impose mandatory conditions on the issuance of certain hydropower licenses issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission in "cooperation" with the Valles Caldera Trust.

Because of the importance of this legislation, and your commitment to include report language that clarifies that this paragraph does not alter the authority or responsibilities of the Secretary under the Federal Power Act, I will not exercise the Committee's right to a sequential referral. By agreeing to waive its consideration of the bill, however, the Committee on Commerce does not waive its jurisdiction over S. 1892. In addition, the Commerce Committee reserves its authority to seek conferees on any provisions of the bill that are within its jurisdiction during any House-Senate conference that may be convened on this legislation. I ask for your commitment to support any request by the Commerce Committee for conferees on S. 1892 or similar legislation.

I request that you include this letter and your response as part of the RECORD during consideration of the legislation on the House floor.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Sincerely,

TOM BLILEY,
Chairman.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, the Valles Caldera Preservation Act will secure the Baca Ranch for the people of our Nation. The stunning 95,000 acre Baca Ranch sits in the heart of my congressional district. The vast landscape includes over 25 miles of streams, mountain peaks as high as 11,000 feet, and the Valles Caldera, a 15-mile-wide remnant of an ancient volcano. This unique geological feature is well-known around the world and has been seen by astronauts from space.

Other open lands that surround the Valles Caldera include the Santa Fe National Forest, Bandelier National Monument and the Jemez National Recreation Area. The Baca Ranch is home to teaming amounts of wildlife, including New Mexico's largest wild elk herd, mule deer, mountain lions and rainbow and brown trout.

The land also has unique historic value as part of the land grant heritage of northern New Mexico. The Baca Ranch grew out of land granted to Don Luis Maria Cabeza de Vaca in 1841. Over the years, the vast resources of the Baca Ranch have benefited the people of New Mexico. Historically and in modern times, the forests have been harvested and cattle have grazed on the lush grasslands.

The potential public uses of the Baca Ranch land are remarkable. As wild as the land is, it is close to the communities of Santa Fe and Albuquerque, making it easily accessible to the public. Recreational opportunities including fishing, hunting, hiking, camping, and cross-country skiing abound on the Baca.

A key aspect of the Baca Ranch bill is that it will continue to be a working ranch. Following the Dunnigan family's example of responsible stewardship, I am both hopeful and confident that the ranch will be managed so it supports both traditional livestock activities and wildlife. Public ownership of the Baca means that traditional to Mexican families will have the same opportunities to join others that are able to enjoy the land.

One issue of concern to me has been the accessibility of the Baca Ranch to the general public for hunting and fishing. I raised this issue earlier in the Committee on Resources. I did not offer an amendment because I wished to work with the administration and other Members in resolving this issue. In my discussions with the administration, I have now been assured that fairness and equity will apply to those wishing to use this beautiful ranch for recreational purposes, including hunting and fishing.

In a letter sent to me on May 25 of this year from George Frampton, acting chair of the Council on Environmental Quality, Mr. Frampton states, "While efforts at income generation may include the charging of fees for hunting and other activities on the property, the Preserve will be a public asset. As such, any fees for activities in which the public is likely to participate should be reasonable and affordable. Restrictions on hunting that may be necessary due to resource limitations should be accomplished through reservation or lottery systems and not through the charging of excessive or exorbitant fees."

Mr. Speaker, I include Mr. Frampton's letter for the RECORD.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, COUNCIL ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY,

Washington, DC, May 25, 2000.

Representative TOM UDALL,
United States House of Representatives, Washington, DC.

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE UDALL: This is to confirm our telephone conversation regarding the Valles Caldera property in your District. Due in part to your hard work, the Forest Service is closer than it has ever been to acquiring this property and assuring its preservation for future generations, although it does not yet have the authority to finalize this acquisition. As you know, authorizing legislation is required before the transaction can take place. Such legislation, which the Administration supports, has passed the Senate and was considered by the House Resources Committee yesterday. This legislation provides for management of the property by a board of trustees, and establishes requirements and guidance for the Trust in this regard.

You have asked about the Administration's understanding of the intent of this legislation with respect to fees for hunting that may be permitted on the property. It is our understanding that the foremost responsibility of the Trust managers of this property should it come into federal ownership will be protection and conservation of its natural, scientific and historic resources. Other management goals, including income generation, are to be pursued only to the extent that they are consistent with resource protection.

While efforts at income generation may include the charging of fees for hunting and other activities on the property, the Preserve will be a public asset. As such, any fees for activities in which the public is likely to participate should be reasonable and affordable. Restrictions on hunting that may be necessary due to resource limitations should be accomplished through reservation or lottery systems, and not through the charging of excessive or exorbitant fees.

I trust this information on the Administration's understanding of the legislation as currently drafted is useful. I look forward to working with you to protect this unique and wonderful part of your congressional district for future generations of New Mexicans and all Americans.

Sincerely,

GEORGE T. FRAMPTON, Jr.,
Acting Chair.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, these assurances made by Mr. Frampton and the administration make me much more comfortable with the objectives of this historic piece of legislation. This bill is before us as the result of a bipartisan, bicameral effort to acquire the Baca for the American public, providing the present and future generations an invaluable gift.

Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as she may consume to the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON), the sponsor of this legislation.

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to support the passage of S. 1872 which will purchase the Baca Ranch for the people of New Mexico and the people of this country.

The Baca includes an area known as the Valles Caldera in northern New Mexico. It is bordered by the Santa Fe National Forest and also the Bandelier National Monument. It is almost 95,000 acres of beautiful land that has been in private hands and conserved in private hands since 1860. But its geological significance is something that really makes it a national unique treasure.

Mr. Speaker, 1.6 million years ago, there were volcanoes in the area, and one of the most well-preserved ones is the Valles Caldera. It is 15 miles in diameter, and one can still see the rim of the volcano. That volcano was 600 times more powerful than Mount Saint Helens and the ash from that volcano is spread across the United States and can be found in Kansas and Texas and Oklahoma. That collapsed volcano is now perfectly preserved. It was never disturbed, and it is a wonderful geological treasure that should be preserved so that it can be studied.

In addition, on the 90,000 acres of the Baca, which has been very well conserved by the Dunnigan family that has owned it for so long, there are 17 threatened or endangered species that also have been protected. The appropriation for the bill has already been passed, $101 million in the fiscal year 2000 Interior Appropriations, but that money was subject to passing this authorization bill, and we need to move forward with it.

In 1999, Senator DOMENICI, Senator BINGAMAN, and the President of the United States agreed on a unique management plan for Baca that will be unlike most public lands and Federal lands in this country. The State of New Mexico is already owned one-third by the Federal Government.

This management plan that is included in the bill and identical to the House bill that I was the sponsor of has a unique approach. It sets up a special trust for the management of the Baca. It will not be just regular Federal land. That special trust is a government corporation and will be run by a board of trustees that includes nine members, five of whom must be New Mexicans. The land must be managed for the benefit and enjoyment of the people of the United States, but also should try to be self-sustaining. The management of that piece of land will not be under some Washington bureaucracy, but under a board of trustees given unique powers, and I think it serves as a real model for the management in the future of our Federal lands.

Title II of the bill is also unique. One of the great barriers to buying beautiful pieces of land like the Baca is that there is no money in the pot, because Federal agencies have not sold off surplus lands, lands that the agencies themselves say are surplus to any requirement that the Federal Government may have for them. So the money is not there to buy things like the Baca or Tres Tostoles in my district that I was able to secure funds for in 1998, or even the inholdings in places like the Petroglyph National Monument, also in my district, where there are private landowners completely surrounded by a national monument by Federal lands.

So this bill says that these Federal agencies should come up with a plan to sell off surplus lands, to replenish the pot so that we can buy beautiful pieces of property with national significance like the Baca. The money that is used from selling off those surplus lands will be used by the BLM and others to buy pieces of land like the Baca. Eighty percent of the funds that are obtained by land sales have to be used in the State where the land is sold so that there is benefit to the people of the State where the land is sold. The money can only be purchased for inholdings and surrounding lands from willing sellers at a fair market value.

Mr. Speaker, I think that this is a unique approach to the management of public lands, and it preserves a piece of property in northern New Mexico which is unique in this country. It is a beautiful place and is worthy of preservation, and I am very pleased that we have been able to work together to get this bill to the floor of the House. I particularly want to thank the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN) for his help and leadership for coming to New Mexico and seeing this beautiful piece of property and for helping to bring this bill to the floor.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Tennessee (Mr. DUNCAN).

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Utah for yielding me this time.

I rise in opposition to this legislation to purchase the Baca Ranch in New Mexico. I know this bill is going to pass with an overwhelming majority and almost no opposition. In fact, I have not sent out "Dear Colleagues" or tried to stir up opposition in any way because the votes simply would not be there. I would say too that I believe that the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) and the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) are simply doing what good Members from New Mexico should do.

However, I think this is a very bad deal for the taxpayers. In fact, this bill is strongly opposed by the Citizens Against Government Waste, the 600,000-member Citizens Against Government Waste. A portion of that letter says, "According to the Congressional Research Service, that price," the price the owners of the Baca Ranch paid for "when adjusted for inflation would be the equivalent of $11.7 million today. However, the legislation will force the taxpayers to pay nearly 10 times that amount, or 50 times the original purchase price, a whopping $101 million. This is a great deal if you are the seller of the property, but a horrible deal for taxpayers."

"This bill is not only extravagant, it is unnecessary."

Those are the words of the Council for the Citizens Against Government Waste.

As noted in their letter, the family that owns this ranch bought it in 1961 for $2.1 million. Under this bill, the Federal Government is going to pay $101 million for this property, almost 50 times the original purchase price. I would bet that almost everyone in this Nation would love to sell their property for 50 times what they paid for it. This is a colossal rip-off of the taxpayers and, as noted in the Citizens Against Government Waste letter, the Congressional Research Service ran the numbers on this. According to the CRS, there has been 452 percent inflation since 1961, and when we adjust this price for inflation, this property should be worth $11.7 million. We definitely should not be paying $101 million for property that was bought for $2.1 million and today, adjusted for inflation, should be worth $11.7 million.

Mr. Speaker, this is welfare for the rich. It is a windfall for the wealthy. I watched a tape about this property. It is beautiful. However, as I noted in committee when this bill came up, the most over-used word in our committee in the Committee on Resources and in the Congress is "pristine." We are constantly told that we have to buy this property or that property because it is beautiful or pristine. But if the Federal Government tried to buy every beautiful, pristine piece of property in this country, it would bankrupt our government and saddle our economy. Besides, as the gentlewoman from New Mexico just noted, the Federal Government already owns 37 percent of New Mexico, millions of acres. That should be more than enough. The Federal Government certainly does not need any more of New Mexico and has too much already.

Mr. Speaker, private property is one of the main foundations of our prosperity. It is one of the cornerstones of our freedom. Private property is one of the main things that has set us apart from socialist and Communist nations. Already, the Federal Government owns over 30 percent of the land in this Nation. State and local governments and quasi-governmental units own another 20 percent. Half of the land is in some type of public ownership. Yet what is alarming is the rapid rate at which government at all levels continues to take over more and more and more property.

Also, we keep putting more and more restrictions, limitations, rules, regulations and red tape on the land that does remain in private hands. If we keep doing away with private property, we are going to drive up the prices of homes and cause serious damage to our economy. We will hurt the poor and the working people and those of middle income the most.

We should not waste the taxpayers' money in this way. Mr. Speaker, $101 million for property bought for $2.1 million is more than 4,000 percent higher than what it should be or what we should have paid for it when adjusted for inflation. We should not take money from lower- and middle-income Americans to pay a rich family almost 50 times what they paid for their property.

Mr. Speaker, I will repeat again what the Citizens Against Government Waste said. Quote: "This is a great deal if you are the seller of the property, but a horrible deal for taxpayers. This bill is not only extravagant, it is unnecessary."

Mr. Speaker, at this time I will include for the RECORD the letter from Citizens Against Government Waste.

COUNCIL FOR CITIZENS
AGAINST GOVERNMENT WASTE,
Washington, DC, June 2, 2000.

Hon. JOHN DUNCAN,
Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

DEAR REPRESENTATIVE DUNCAN: On behalf of the 600,000 members of the Council for Citizens Against Government Waste (CCAGW), I would like to express my appreciation of your efforts to highlight the waste and abuse of taxpayer money in S. 1892, the Valles Caldera Preservation Act.

The Valles Caldera Preservation Act would authorize the purchase of the Baca Ranch in New Mexico. As you noted, the current owners purchased this property in 1961 for $2.1 million. According to the Congressional Research Service, that price, when adjusted for inflation, would be the equivalent of $11.7 million today. However, the legislation will force the taxpayers to pay nearly ten times that amount, or 50 times the original purchase price, a whopping $101 million dollars. This is a great deal if you are the seller of the property, but a horrible deal for taxpayers.

This bill is not only extravagant, it is unnecessary. The federal government currently owns more than 30 percent of all the land in the United States and cannot properly maintain those holdings. In 1998, the National Park Service estimated that it would cost $3.54 billion to repair maintenance problems at national parks, monuments and wilderness areas. Last year, the House Appropriations Committee estimated that there is a $15 billion backlog of maintenance.

CCAGW urges your House colleagues to support your efforts to stop this boondoggle. Any vote on the purchase of the Baca Ranch will be among those considered for CCAGW's 2000 Congressional Ratings.

Sincerely,

THOMAS SCHATZ,
President.

Mr. DUNCAN. As I said, Mr. Speaker, I believe this is a tremendous rip-off of the taxpayers of this Nation, and I would urge and I hope that at least a few people vote against this bill. I know, as I say, it will pass by an overwhelming margin, but I will be requesting a vote on this bill.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON).

Mrs. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I appreciate the comments of the gentleman on the cost of this ranch, and I understand his perspective; and I also appreciate his kind cooperation as we have gone through this process. I also understand the perspective of how much Federal land we do have in the State of New Mexico. There is really only one reason that I think this bill has such broad support and that is because of title II and the direction to sell off some of this surplus land and make sure there is money in the pot to buy things like the Baca.

I would like to, though, put one thing into the RECORD here on the value of this ranch. It was not just a number that came out of the air, and I think we need to be fair, that there was an appraisal of the ranch and that the Forest Service ordered a market study of that appraisal and found that the appraisal met the Federal standards and agreed to the price of that ranch.

Now, there are appraisers who will come up with all kinds of different values of things based on different methodologies. This committee deals with those every day, different disagreements among qualified appraisers on the value of a piece of property.

I think back to what things cost in 1962. I was only 2 years old then, and I do not think a straight line inflation is probably the way we should judge the value of a piece of property. Appraisers do it in a slightly different way based on what the market conditions really are.

I think this is probably a good deal for the country as a whole and a fair price, and we should move forward with it.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from California (Mr. GEORGE MILLER), ranking member on the Committee on Resources.

Mr. GEORGE MILLER of California. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for yielding time to me, and I want to congratulate the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) and the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) for this legislation.

I think we would make a terrible mistake if we thought about this in very narrow terms, if we thought about this simply as a matter of dollars. Obviously, we have an obligation to think about the dollars that we expend. This legislation is drafted with that in mind, and the requirements for self-sufficiency.

We did this when we acquired the Presidio and created the national park there after the Army left, in San Francisco. We did that because we recognized that this was one of the unique natural assets in our Nation.

Today we do the same thing with the Baca Ranch. It is not like we discovered this ranch yesterday. It is not like people just all of a sudden realized this was of value. People have recognized this as a value, a natural asset in this country, for many, many years. We now have the opportunity, through the cooperation of the family, to make this a part of our Federal land base, a land base that is envied around the world; a land base that, as many will find with the Baca Ranch, in many ways become economic generators to communities because tourists want to see these protected lands, whether it is the headwaters of the rivers or whether it is the great valleys of this ranch or the wildlife.

Fortunately, this Nation, this Congress, and Presidents of both parties have continued to acquire these lands. It is not to acquire them willy-nilly, it is to acquire them based upon a set of values and a set of assets that are unique, that are important to the history and the heritage of this country.

Clearly the Baca Ranch qualifies in every category, however we measure it. But if we thought about it in very narrow terms, we probably never would have done Yosemite, we never would have created the Tetons, Yellowstone, Arches, the Gateways, any of these great national parks and wilderness areas and Federal preserves in this country. This is to protect it for future generations.

That is what we have done best in this country. That is why other governments send people here to look at this and to see how they can manage lands and open them up for recreation, how we can have the public participate in the utilization of these lands, and at the same time protect them for future generations.

I would hope that this House would give overwhelming support for this legislation. This is truly one of the gifts we give this Nation to be enjoyed by future generations, to preserve and protect the uniqueness of this ranch which was fortunately held in one ownership for so many years, and cared for in the manner in which it was cared for.

The House ought to recognize that and support this legislation, and thank our two colleagues from New Mexico for getting this matter before the House of Representatives, and thank the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN) for his stewardship of this legislation through the Committee on Resources.

Mr. UDALL of New Mexico. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to thank a few people that have been involved in this. Clearly, the gentlewoman from New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) has shown leadership in getting this through the House.

The gentleman from Utah (Chairman HANSEN), I want to thank him for his stewardship and his ability to pull it together and move this thing along. People have been waiting a long time in New Mexico, and we owe a debt of gratitude to the gentleman for working very hard on this bill.

I know the gentleman worked very closely with the ranking member, the gentleman from California (Mr. GEORGE MILLER) to get this to the floor, and I want to thank the gentleman from California for his excellent leadership in negotiating this bill through the rocky shoals of the House.

I also want to thank the New Mexico delegation, Senator DOMENICI, Senator BINGAMAN, the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. SKEEN), who earlier chaired that appropriations bill through and who has been a really fine Member from New Mexico. The entire delegation pulled together on this issue to try to see that it got done, and today we are getting very, very close.

Also, I would like to thank the Members of the Committee staff who have worked with me and the ranking member, the gentleman from California (Mr. GEORGE MILLER): Rick Healy, John Lawrence, David Watkins, and all the others who have worked with us.

I think this is a great example of bipartisanship. It is the House at its best, and I am very proud to be part of this effort.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Speaker, I, too, would like to thank the gentleman from New Mexico (Mr. UDALL) and the gentlewoman from

New Mexico (Mrs. WILSON) for the fine job they have done on this legislation.

I had the opportunity of going to the Baca Ranch a couple of years ago with the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. REGULA). It is one of the more beautiful places on Earth. It is one of the most outstanding places to see.

I would hope that many Americans could now take advantage of seeing this ground that has previously been closed for a number of years. It is a lot of money, I realize, but I really think this would be a great addition to the West.

Mr. Speaker, I urge support of this legislation, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SIMPSON). The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Utah (Mr. HANSEN) that the House suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill, S. 1892.

The question was taken.

Mr. DUNCAN. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to clause 8 of rule XX and the Chair's prior announcement, further proceedings on this motion will be postponed.

The point of no quorum is considered withdrawn.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. HANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks and add extraneous matter on S. 1892.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Utah?

There was no objection.
